In the same building there is a station for jamming Western broadcasts. About 10 meters north of the building is an aerial with two masts, about 20 meters high and 35 meters apart. A double aerial hangs between the two masts. On the main road leading to the building and about one km. north of the house, in the direction of Abertamy, a warning notice is posted, forbidding access. The side, however, is not guarded at all.
